Introducing Mediaway

- Mediaway Broadband Television Ltd is the company formed and grew within the E-GO Project, the incubator of the global leader Ericsson (Nasdaq: Eric). Founded by Andrea Cilento, the pioneer of Web TV in Italy since 1997, Mediaway has been the first Publisher of Thematic Channels and Premium Contents conceived and produced exclusively for the Web
- Since 2011 Mediaway is Telecom Italia (former incumbent Telco Carrier in Italy) Partner for the New TV Business models through the New TV Business Board, formed jointly to study the new publishing and business models for IPTV, Mobile TV, Web TV.
- Mediaway's Web TV Solution became part of Ericsson's Products Portfolio for the Market Unit South East Europe since December 2008 and was sold as an Ericsson Branded solution to prestigious Corporates.
- Since 2003, Mediaway has developed a proprietary IPTV solution, able to deliver linear and on demand channels through set top box connected to TV screens. This Product as well became part of Ericsson's portfolio since 2007, proposed to Romanian Carrier ROMTELECOM as IPTV Solution for the Moldova as well as other testing in Russia and UAE.

Introducing Mediaway

- The distinctive position of Mediaway is to play as Publisher and Prime Integrator of TV channels conceived and produced exclusively for the Web, merging the tech and the publishing visions, in a unique culture with robust strategy, changing publishing models, business models and shaping technology.
- Mediaway has reached a unique positioning, hardly replicable for the complexity of the company's culture and the asset and skills developed during over 10 years.
- Since 2000, Andrea Cilento has produced, as first in Italy and among the first on the global market, exclusive premium contents for the web: big broadcasting stars taken to specific unique formats for the Web: yourtelevision.com, first italian Web TV, offered 5 thematic channels with contents featuring big stars like Vittorio Sgarbi and a large soccer images library.

- ADN Kronos: “UN PIATTAFORMA WEB E IPTV PER GLI ITALIANI NEL MONDO
- Roma – Una piattaforma tv web e iptv, ossia visibile col supporto decoder, che offre canali tematici dedicati alle eccellenze italiane e da indirizzare ai tanti connazionali residenti all'estero. Questa la proposta lanciata da Andrea Cilento, amministratore delegato della Mediaway- Ericsson Ego Project nell'ambito del convegno dal titolo “Per un nuovo sistema di provvidenze all'informazione italiana all'estero”, organizzato nei giorni scorsi a Roma. “Alla piattaforma dovrebbero partecipare piccoli e medi editori non italiani, attivi all'estero nel campo dell'informazione rivolta agli italiani nel mondo. Ad oggi sono già dieci i soggetti interessati a prendere parte all'iniziativa. La nostra idea è quella di offrire una piattaforma con canali tematici specializzati in settori che testimoniano le eccellenze italiane all'estero come la cucina, l'arte, la storia”. Un progetto che andrà a colmare i limiti che oggi caratterizzano le testate dedicate agli italiani all'estero. Secondo Andrea Cilento questi media sono “molto generalisti e poco legati al multimediale; puntano soprattutto sul testo e poco sulla tv; sono carenti di strumenti elettronici che favoriscono la socializzazione in rete, che invece è necessaria a quanti risiedono all'estero”. Brevi anche i tempi d'attuazione del nuovo progetto che potrebbe vedere la nascita del numero 0 della nuova piattaforma già tra sei mesi.”
